

Maison Fondée en 1811

Perrier-Jouët has over two centuries of expertise in the art of Champagne. The house is renowned for its lively, fresh, elegant wines with great finesse and wonderful balance. The iconic Belle Epoque bottle was designed by Emile Gallé in 1902 and echoes the Perrier-Jouët style, in homage to grace and beauty.

125ml Bottle

Perrier-Jouët Grand Brut 14 75

Fruity, floral and elegant: flavours of lightly juicy stone fruit, apples and zesty citrus are offset by the fine mousse and delicate notes of brioche.

Perrier-Jouët Blason Rosé 20 115

The Blason Rosé is an intense and balanced Champagne; with a nose of red fruits, pomegranates, blood oranges, butter pastry and rose petals. The palate is supple and complex, with a rich and long finish.

Perrier-Jouët Belle Epoque 2007 230

Sleek, silky fragrances of white peaches, lemons and pears are accompanied on the nose by subtle nuances of pineapple, fresh spring flowers and rich, secondary flavours of walnuts, marzipan and sweet spice. The palate is intense but refined, with a streak of refreshing minerality that balances the rich flavour profile, leading to a long lasting finish.

Perrier-Jouët Belle Epoque Rose 2006 380

Both delicate and complex, the fragrance of peonies gives way to notes of fresh red fruits (raspberries and strawberries), citrus (oranges and pink grapefruit), and finally pomegranate. A fresh and refined sensation on the palate, with notes of fresh pomegranate and pink grapefruit. Round, supple and harmonious, the Belle Epoque Rosé 2006 develops a silky long finish in the mouth.

Perrier-Jouët Belle Epoque Blanc de Blanc 2002 850

The house's rarest and most precious cuvee. Fragrances of astonishing richness, a delicate and elegant complexity. The initial aromas of white flowers (hawthorn) are subtly accentuated by hints of citrus. Mineral (chalky) notes unfurl across the Acacia honey. In the mouth, the sensation is candid and round, with pleasantly balanced sugary notes, all in vibrant harmony. Roundness and charm complete the tasting for a fine long finish.

CHAMPAGNE

Bottle

Laurent Perrier Vintage 125
A delicate, subtle nose with aromas of fresh pineapple, dried apricots and almonds. A very pleasant, rounded attack, followed by a marked sense of balance, with a lively finish offering hints of white peach and mirabelle.

Laurent Perrier Ultra Brut 130
Intense and complex on the nose, with a wide range of aromas, including citrus, white fruit & flowers. Airy and delicate taste, yet surprisingly long.

Bollinger Grand Annee 2005 175
Honey, gingerbread and cinnamon aromas; subtle notes of dried fruits & flowers. The palate is mature, supple and full with a long finish with hints of pastry, candied orange and ripe fruit flavours.

Dom Perignon 2003 280
The wine's remarkably rich bouquet reveals itself in successive waves: first the intense fruit, more black than red, which then melts into silvery minerality.

Louis Roederer Cristal 2006 360
This vintage is very crisp, very bright and very clean, with the beginnings of a toasty brioche character beginning to make its presence felt, along with some deliciously creamy, attractive notes on the finish.

Laurent Perrier Rosé 180
A basketful of small berry fruits: strawberries, raspberries, blackcurrants, blackberries, redcurrants, morello and black cherries. The overwhelming sensation is one of freshness.

Dom Perignon Rosé 2003 450
The structure is a woven mesh of complexity that changes with every sniff and sip. The first floral notes immediately give way to black cherry and candied fruit peel followed by cocoa, cardamom and smoky aromas.

Louis Roederer Cristal Rosé 2006 750
2006 Vintage has an intense, generous bouquet with predominant aromas of figs, raspberries and wild strawberries. An immense wine with great finesse with dried fruits, fresh almonds and frangipane, to notes of Tarte Tatin, oven-baked apples and caramel.
